Ms. Carolyn Fay Lockett was born November 23, 1947 in Okolona, Arkansas, the daughter of Zebedee and Mildred Lockett. Carolyn's parents instilled in her a love for the Lord, baptizing her at an early age at St. Clair Baptist Church in Burtsell, Arkansas. She had been a resident of Flint, MI since 1967. Carolyn started her career at JL Hudson and spent the last 32 years in the dietary office at McLaren Regional Medical Center. She also was a devoted member of Evergreen Baptist Church where she served as the choir director for several years. She had been an Eastern Star for over 30 years; she was a member of Cap Jasmine #2 O.E.S. where she served as Past Worthy Matron; she was the Past Royal Matron of the Amaranth Court #4; Carolyn also served as the Past Most Ancient Matron of the Beauty Rose Court #5 Heroines of Jericho, Grand Most Ancient Matron of Michigan Heroines of Jericho and Justice of the Holy Cross Council #4 Lady Knights. More, she was the Past Most Worthy Grand Matron of Mecca Court #5 Daughters of Sphinx, and member of the Sheba Palace Royal Ladies, and a member of the Matron Council. Prior to her passing, Carolyn served as the Supreme Most Ancient Grand Matron of the Supreme Grand Court of Heroines Jericho of North and South America. She leaves to cherish in her memory: son, Corey (Nikayela) Lockett; daughter, Takeshi Kennedy; 2 grandsons, Corey Lockett Jr. and William Lockett; 2 granddaughters, Alaysha Buggs and Ka'Leah Fay Williams; 5 sisters; 2 brothers; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. Ms. Lockett was preceded in death by her parents; brother; and three nephews. The Family would like to express special thanks to her many, many friends. She loved you all and appreciated all the kindness you showed throughout the years. In addition, we like to thank the McLaren Health Care System.

To Aunt Fay,
My beautiful aunt, I love you and miss you dearly. You were a woman of inspiration. You walked proudly, spoke peacefully, and dressed accordingly. You left a wonderful legacy for your family, especially for the ladies. I will say you were the 'Host with the Most'! You lived a wonderful life! Although it hurts deeply that you are no longer here in the physical I am happy for you. No more pain, no more suffering. You were tired and you needed your rest. I thank God for letting you rest peacefully. I also thank God I had you as I did and still do. Your words will always be with me. I carry you in my heart you help keep my heart strong just like you. I appreciate you in eternity just as I did in life. Thanks for everything! I love you!

To Keshia,
I love you. I'm sitting with a loss of words. You never know how to tackle death. It affects everyone in different ways. It doesn?t matter how sudden or how gradual it is, we can never be prepared. I know you loved your mom, and she knows you did. She loved you too. To my knowledge and sight she only wanted you to have the best. She gave you everything she could in life. You continue to live life as best you can. Only settle for the best. Let her words and thoughts help guide you. Continue to make her proud as a mother, a daughter, a sister, an aunt, a friend, an all around lady because she deserves that and so do you.

To Corey & Nikky,
Same to you as with Keshia, I am at a loss for words. I?m sure it was some rough days. That?s how life is sometimes. You guys stuck through it together and that is what makes life beautiful. Aunt Fay didn?t make a lot of noise but you knew she was there, and when she did talk the rest of the world was quiet. The same is true with me, I may not always be there in your presence but I am always here when you need me. I never lost a parent but I do know how lost feels. It hurts deeply. I am very sorrowful for your loss. I know being in a new marriage, with child, and dealing with everything is overwhelming. Keep Aunt Fay memory alive by staying strong and keeping the family strong, and together. Anytime you want to talk, I?m always up for a conversation. I love you.

I will always remember Fays smile and the special times we shared over the years. She was a good friend and a Great Lady. Speaking for the class of 1965 we will miss her presence.

You have my deepest sympathy. She has gone home with the Lord. May the Lord bless you and keep you doing your time of bereavement.
God bless you,

Helen
