To my brother Julius Dawson and my sister Betty Jean Tate. Gone but never forgotten I remember when she surprised my brother by paying for his daughter to come up to flint in 2018. I know a piece of my brother heart is missing because he loved her. And she is the mother of his son cry if you may for she is resting know jus prepare to join her on the other side. My prayers are with the family I wanted to go and attend this funeral to support my family but God can go were I can't sleep on Betty take your rest.
