Ms. Jo: You was part of our family for many years. Even after losing two of your dearest friends (Jeannette & Brenda) you still hung on in there, continuing to support our family and attending the many family meetings and festivities; always on time. We will miss you Ms. Jo but we still have our memories of you. "Lady"

My Joan' I am hurting inside because I wasn't ready for God to come get his child; but I understand . You were a loyal friend, surrogate mother and care giver to me when I needed someone.. You knew I loved you so letting go is going to hard. You taught me forgiveness long ago..AND family I am so sorry for your loss; you have my sincere and deepest condolences...I will never forget Joan and her kind heart..
