“ *To the Cureton Family:
I send my deepest condolence to you. Growing up Abe always called me "lil' sis" and I was so happy to have a BIG brother. (Everyone always knew my brother, Dan as my twin.) Abe is definitely in a better place now, where there's no more pain, hurt or sorrow. HE WILL BE MISSED GREATLY!!! My prayers are with and for you Diane. You are such a "Virtuous Woman." He loved you so much! I want you to know that I love you all!*

“ Diane and I went to school together and girl I know your husband suffered. One thing for sure he is not in no more pain. I know this does not bring you any comfort but he is at peace and all of you all that loved him will see him again. Keep your faith and trust in God you got a longhill to climb but God will see you through. The Cummings family have you in our prayers
