“ To the children and "entire" Henry family: It is early morning that begins the "Celebration of Life" events for your beloved, that I rise, once again, thinking of and praying for all of you. Mr. Henry was the eldest male member here at Vernon Chapel AME Church-Flint. So, we say "See you when the morning comes" to another soldier in the army of our body of Christ. I was remember-ing, after living many decades myself, Mr. Henry was the only "Abraham" I ever met! He must have been a "special" father to each of you. Family, take comfort "in" and "know" that prayers go up to our heavenly Father, in the name of His Son, Jesus, on your behalf. May your wounded hearts be healed without scars. "The Lord bless you and keep you...and give you peace."- Number 6:24-26 Charles & Willene Sumpter, Mt. Morris, MI (of Vernon Chapel)
