Mother Ada B. Bishop was born on November 24, 1919 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, the daughter of Louise and Reese Gray. Mother Bishop lived a blessed-filled centennial life that was full of love and laughter with her friends and family. Mother Bishop worked for Tuscaloosa News and retired in 1983. Mother Bishop was a sweet soul who always knew how to let her light so shine to illuminate the world. She was a thoughtful, outspoken, and virtuous woman. She loved people deeply, and the Lord deeper. Mother Bishop was a very sociable person who enjoyed talking on the phone to her nearby and long distanced friends and family members. She often called her friends and family for a great conversation and a good laugh. She married Fercy Turner in 1938 and had one daughter in 1939, Mable Duncan. Later on, she was remarried to Benny Bishop. Mother Bishop moved to Michigan in 1986 and spent her days volunteering at First Trinity's Baptist Church Clothing Shelter, being a part of the Silver Liners Ministry, being inclusive in the Mother's Board Ministry, and spending time with her family and friends.

Mother Bishop leaves to cherish her memory: sister, Marian (Mack) Barker of Hackensack, NJ; granddaughter, Nikida (Lonnie) Scott; 2 great-granddaughters, Shamika and Briana Scott; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Mother Bishop was preceded in death by her husband, Benny Bishop; daughter, Mable Duncan and son-in-law, James Duncan; granddaughter, LaDetherie Duncan; parents, Louise and Reese Gray; step-mother, Mary Gray; 13 siblings, 8 sisters, Susan Gray, Pearl Moore, Ola Richards, Catherine Brown, Lillie Bell Gray and Willie Ruth Quarles, 6 brothers, John Gray, Charles Gray, Christopher Gray, Riley Gray, Elbert Gray, and Sonny Quarles.

The family would like to express special thanks to the close family members and friends that called, visited, and gave Mother Bishop a helping hand along the way.

“ My deepest condolences to the Bishop family. Mother Ida was such amazing person and I will truly miss her and talking to Mother Ida. I've always told her and the Pastors past and present if I had to choose another Mom after my Mom's passing would be her. She had such a loving and caring and spiritual heart that was unmatched.
