“ Mommy , thinking of you everyday. Miss you sooo much. I remember three years ago before you left us. I was soo happy when you were talking and laughing . I remember when your granddaughter Kenisha was getting ready to feed you in the hospital and you said . ..Did you wash your hands girl? And I was so excited because that was exactly who you were. You were back to who you were, if only for a short while. I miss you Momma. I Love you. Rest in Heaven❤️

“ I have many many memories of my mother. But as I drove home from work last night one of my memories is the talks we had sometimes on my way home from work at night, quite away from home, because I carpool with a co-worker and I would call my mother every night to say goodnight to her and she knew when I was alone, she would talk to me a little because she didn't want me to be alone in the car, but then she say please call me when you get close to home, cause she didn't want me talk too much while I was driving, even if she was on speaker phone, then she said call her when I get home , because she couldn't. sleep until she knew I made it home safely. She Lived in Michigan and I Live in Houston.. Well I drove home alone last night after returning back to work this week, and my co-worker is on vacation. Although I miss calling my mother last night, I felt her presence and I know she was with me watching over me , so I wasn't alone. Thank you Mama! I love you
