“ I send my deepest sympathy to your family. Akil and I rode the same school bus in elementary I went to Potter and he went to Sobey, he use to get on my nerves because he would always play too much.. Then as we got older we became good friends because he would play down the street from my house with a mutual friend Demond Russell. He'll be missed and may the Lord Bless and comfort your family.

“ We Loved our Brother More than words could say but we know God loved him best that is why he chose to set him free. God doesn't take what is not ready to go so when he whispered into Akil's ears, Akil said Father I'm ready to go. It was a tough decision he knew that he could not fight. The love of God is with him and carried him home that night.

No amount of love from us could keep him from that task that was at hand. He is safe at home in his new mansion in the kingdom of God as last.

On behalf of the Brothers of Iota Phi Theta we install you into the Chapter Eternal where the Brothers step on streets paved with God and loved one are there to cheer him his welcome to his eternal home.

We stand with you family through this difficult time. We shared him for just a little while but his love will last us a lifetime.

Thanks for sharing him with us.

“ To the Goodman Family:

*We have known Akil since we all attended Sobey Elementary School. Akil has always been a funny and bright person, to say the least. We will keep your family in our prayers and hope that everyone will remember the fun times Akil has contributed to everyone's lives. May God be with your family and close friends.
