“ To Sister Beulah Scott and The Britten Family
The women of Abatenjwa Ministers' Wives & Ministers' Widows share in your sadness as you remember and lay your Aunt Aldocia to rest. She's your aunt, but also your cherished friend. I shared a story with the Minister's Wives on how you took care of her, especially during the cold winter months and was "snowed in" during early spring when you were scheduled to come back home to Detroit. What a wonderful blessing how God held you there to continue to serve her.

Thank you, we're glad that, through you, we know your Aunt Aldocia.

“ To the Britten Family:

I was sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

Many wonder why we grow old and die. Romans 5:12 answers that question . It says because of Adam sinning his punishment was death and sin and death was passed on to us all. However, our loving God. Jehovah (1John 4:8) made a way out for us all by sacrificing his only son (John 3:16). God promised us that we would see our loved one again (1John 5:28,29) For more information go to www.jw.org and you can find answers to any question we may have.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ My condolences for the loss of Mrs. Aldocia. I did not know her personally, but I do know what it's like to lose a loved one. I have been comforted by Gods holy word the Bible. In it he assures us at Revelation 21:3,4 that soon God will rid the earth of death and pain. It also assures us that we can see our loved ones again in the resurrection. I hope this comforts you also.

“ Pastor Terry Randolph and the Gethsemane MBC family would like to extend our deepest condolences during this time. We are praying that God will strengthen you all during the homegoing of Mother Britten. She will be missed among our church family. May God keep you is our prayer and we will be there to comfort you along the way.

“ I am very sorry for your loss but, this scripture found at Revelation 21:4 gives us sure hope and comfort. It says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. So in this scripture we see that Jehovah God will bring an end to death. You are also welcome to view the comforting publications at www.jw.org.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. When we experience such a loss we can turn to our heavenly father Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) who is the "Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our trials". (2 Corinthians 1:3&4) The bible also promises us that soon Jehovah God will put an end to death and suffering at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning, outcry nor pain be anymore the former things have passed away". I sincerely hope these words will be comforting to you and you can find more encouraging information at JW.ORG

I remember Mrs. Britten living next door to our family on Parkway Avenue. I will never forget the press and curl for $2.00 for my five sisters and I. I remember those days when my mother and her would laugh and talk with each other. She told me that my sister and I were her daughters. I will cherish those memories, good memories forever.
