

Mr. Alfonzo Dantzler

June 17, 1928 - March 8, 2025

DANTZLER, Mr. Alfonzo - Age 96, passed away Saturday, March 8, 2025, at his residence. Family hour 10:00 AM Saturday, March 15, 2025 from the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home, 906 W. Flint Park Blvd., with funeral service commencing at 11:00 AM. Interment Gracelawn Cemetery, 5710 N. Saginaw St. Friends and pallbearers will assemble at the chapel 10:00 AM Saturday. Mr. Dantzler will lie in state in the Chapel of Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home and may be viewed from 12:00 PM - 6:00 PM Friday, with family presence from 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM to receive friends. Mr. Alfonzo Dantzler was born June 17, 1928, in Proctor, Arkansas, the son of Frank and Mary (Harris) Dantzler. Alfonzo was married to Nonetha (Stubbs) Dantzler for 44 years until her death in 1991. Eight Children were born to this union. Alfonzo retired from Fisher Body Plant #1, a division of General Motor and was a member of UAW Local #581. The past two weeks have been a whirlwind - his health declined so suddenly, and none of us saw it coming. It still doesn't feel real.

Alfonzo was a great man - not a perfect one, but one with a heart of gold. At 96 years old, he lived a full life, rich in love, kindness, and generosity. Though he made mistakes along the way, his heart always led him back to what mattered most; his family.

Alfonzo was caring, compassionate, and deeply devoted to his family and friends. In his younger years, he was the go-to handyman, always willing to help anyone in need. He had a love for baseball, especially his Detroit Tigers, and found joy in the great outdoors, fishing and hunting whenever he could, along with bowling in his younger years. But more than anything, Alfonzo cherished the time he spent with his loved ones. Family vacations were some of his best times.

Alfonzo was a giver, never selfish with what he had. Whether it was his time, his money, or even a place to stay, he opened his heart and home to those in need. He was always willing to drive people wherever they needed to go, run errands, and be a helping hand without hesitation. That was just who he was. Alfonzo was so proud of his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. He got to see them grow up into educators, a physician, an engineer, a pharmacist, a scientist, managers, a firefighter, authors, tax professional, nurses, real estate agents, professional truck drivers, event decorators, entrepreneurs, franchise owners, and productive members of society. Knowing that he witnessed the fruits of his love and sacrifice bring his family comfort.

We can only imagine the moment he stepped through the Pearly Gates, greeted by Jesus and the loved ones who went before him.

Mr. Alfonzo Dantzler leaves to cherish his memory: 5 daughters, Barbara (Kenneth) Nesbitt, Deborah Harris, Valerie Humphries, all of Flint, Cheryl (William) Payton of Mt. Morris, MI and Tonya Davis of Flint; 6 sons, Alfonzo Dantzler Jr. of Mt. Morris, MI, Artie Dantzler, Lonnie (Kym) Stubbs, all of Flint, Adrian (Ta’Kasha) Dantzler of Los Angeles, CA, Quentin (Anissa) Branch of Rancho Cardova, CA and Altron Harrison-EL of Clinton Twp., MI; 26 grandchildren, Dr. Kenyetta (Keyotta) Snell, Jason Gooch, Roshawnda (Corey) Allen, Dr. Natasha Nesbitt, Dr. LaQuandra Nesbitt, Rashad Humphries, Artie Smith, Torrie (Ed) Stanley, Precious (Victor) Miller, Shange Harris, Brittany Scott, Brionna Scott, Bianka Scott, Adrian Dantzler Jr., Amore McConnell, Mario (Alyssa) Harris, Altron Harrison Jr., Kiara Stubbs, Philip Payton, Destiny Davis, Quania Branch, Quamonté Branch, Donavan Branch, Toya Gooch-Garrett, Aaliah Hill and Chris Hill; 30 great-grandchildren; 5 great-great-grandchildren; sister-in-law, Donna Young; god-sons, Herbert Nash and Reginald Brass; a host of nieces and nephews; and numerous other relatives too many to mention; a host of other relatives and friends including special friends, Irene Williams and family, Baker Street family; special nephews, Theron Young and William Hawkins; and special niece, Ava (Sterling) Murry. Alfonzo was preceded in death by his wife, Nonetha Dantzler; parents, Frank and Mary Dantzler; daughter, MaryLee Stubbs; grandsons, Alfonzo Curry, Richard Humphries II and Montana Gooch; daughter-in-law, Rosie Dantzler; 2 mothers-in-law; 2 fathers-in-law; 2 brothers; 4 sisters; 6 brothers-in-law; 8 sisters-in-law; and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friend. The family would like to express special thanks to caregivers, Artie Dantzler, Deborah Harris and Theron Young, All American Home Health Hospice Care, Pastor DeQuan Ford and the House of Prayer Missionary Baptist Church family, Pastor George Wilkinson and Word of Life Christian Church family, Pastor Janard Lakes and Spirit of Victory Outreach Ministries family, Dr. Paul Musson and staff, and Lawrence E. “ Mr. Dantzler was indeed a good man, he set examples for his children and anyone that came in contact with him about how family/work should be

Mr. Dantzler was like most father's back in the day he worked if you read his obituary you can see he was a Dad who was loved by his family and all those who came in contact with him

I got to say this I had a garden across the street from Mr. Dantzler and when I would be over there working the garden he would come over he would say- I got 4 peppers I would say that mean 8", then he would say I got 5 tomatoes I would say that mean 10" we couldn't stop laughing!!!!

*Mr. Dantzler will be missed at the Barbershop coming in for his haircut/shave but don't mess with the mustache and goatee!!
Keeping the family in our prayers*

“Daddy, thank you for always showing me love and welcoming me into the Dantzler family. You were a strong man with a kind heart. We never made it on that lake to go fishing because you told me I'd have to hook my own worms and I know I couldn't/wouldn't do it!

Thank you again Daddy for being the best Father in love I could ever ask for, for raising such a tight knit family full of LOVE and support.

I celebrate you making over, receiving your crown and hearing those words from the Lord "Well done, good and faithful servant". Although we will miss you dearly, I understand that your mission on this earth was complete. So take your well deserved rest, kiss my Mother in Love and my Parents for me. And until we met again...
