“ When you live by walking, talking, exemplifying grace and witness love, peace, hope, and kindness a smile is what I seek when I come into her presence. To the entire families of Mo. Morton each and every generation all near and far, by blood and all the generations of spirit nearly one hundred years of life. We the Randolph family send our sentiments during this time and beyond. The peace of God covers beyond the words of men.

“ Ms. Alice was a neighbor of ours for over 60 years, I will miss communicating & checking in on her and being able to ask her general questions about certain things. She was a resource person for us and a great neighbor. Last year our refrigerator went out and I called her and she made room for our food to be stored for a week. Very sweet and kind lady.
