“ Dear Gloria,

Your kindness and congeniality have touched the lives of your fellow Northern Vikings for years. I still have great memories of all the joy which you evoked at our last class reunion. Such traits truly must have been inherited from your mother.

All my thoughts of her evoke the image of the perfect lady. Mrs. Woods always entertained her guests magnificently. She also imbued you with a great sense of style and sewing skills. I always admired her ability to create unique fashions.

I look forward to hearing from you to ascertain any ways that I may assist.
