“ To the family of Mr. Allan Applewhite Jr., I am deeply saddened by the passing of your loved one. I have nothing but positive memories, and thoughts for Allan, he was someone I could always have a good conversation, or laugh with. It hurts to know I won't be seeing him around town anymore. May he rest in peace.

“ I can't believe I'm saying goodbye to you. I guess I'm in shock about it all. It was just a little over 2 months we were talking about you ordering the food truck, and the BBQ you would be serving. I was so happy and proud to see you so passionate about something, I loved seeing you working toward your dream. We were talking about our childhood and how we all grew up together and complaining that now it's the opposite; we rarely see and speak to one another. I didn't know that would be my last hug from you. I would have held you tighter, I would have held you longer. You are gone to soon Cuz, I miss you already. Rest Peacefully - Marquita

His kids, grandbaby, brothers, sisters, cousins and many many friends. I was his Peewee. He was my Snickers. I loved him like no other. We were friends for many years. We ALL will miss you and love you Allan!! Prayers and Love to Miss Deborah and the family.
