“ Deborah and Junior, your mom and my mom go waaaaay back! I remember going on church trips with you two when I was younger and then we grew up and went our separate ways with me moving to Texas. I saw your mom many, many times over the years when she would stop by my mom (Sista Robinson) house. I always thought she was real "spunky" but in a good way and I loved the little bows she wore in her hair. She was one classy lady! I loved her as much as I love my mom and I will truly miss her! She lived a long and good life and I feel blessed to have known her. I'm sending a TEXAS size HUG and LOVE to you and your families - Mary "Annette" Stewart
