“ Man there’s so many memories with you T and I just been flashing back to them all. I had dreams last night of breaking down crying constantly but I know to be strong. We had our differences after Sis died but we were getting back right and im just so thankful that the spirit of forgiveness took place because I would hate to be on bad terms at this time. T Ima miss your smile and you and Rena were so much alike and now yall both gone but yall gonna be right next to each other and Ima visit and come kick it with yall all the time. Love you Sis. You remember when you told me those words before i crashed my car into a huge snow bank lol. You was like I love you Sis and i was like oh you love me ok crashhh. We all got out the car laughing like we were definitely wild. Rest up baby

“ My heart actually stopped and I am in utter shock and broken. I was thinking about you all last week trying to reach out with the last number I have. Oh my heart is aching right now. I know you are holding Harmonei" in your hands. to all of her beautiful babies as well as the extended family of the Millers. "Small person" you are greatly missed. My heart will continue to have a dent in it for you.
