Oh, what a glorious reunion Marianna Arkansas is having in Heaven. My family (paternal and maternal) grew up from babies with the Waltons. O.G. later married my mom (Katie) and you became my Auntie, Al. You were a bigger than life spirit. As beautiful on the inside as you were externally. You left your life's footprints here and will never be forgotten. Rest well auntie ❤️

Oh Lord our God, who is full of love and mercy, in whom we find comfort and peace. Thank you, Lord, for being the owner and creator of everything in this universe, but especially for the life of my beautiful and talented Aunt Altheda. Her mother, Darthula, (my paternal grandmother) was so very proud of her youngest daughter and will be even prouder to know that Al's remains are now resting at her feet. Long Live the Operatic Soprano, Queen Altheda.

“ Dearest Gregory and Baron,
This is your cousin, Ronnie, daughter of W. T. Walton, Jr., your mother’s oldest brother.
Always know of your mother’s love and admiration of both her sons. She always spoke highly about both of you to me. Aunt Altheda was a kind, gentle and beautiful spirit as a young girl growing up and a gorgeous full grown lady. She inherited a gift for music from her father and our grandfather, the late W. T. Walton, Sr...as he made beautiful music because his fingers could fly across the keyboard of any piano. We were all so proud of her educational achievements and her beautiful operatic voice. Long live the Queen!
Your cousin,

Auntie Altheda was beautiful inside & out. It's been awhile since I last saw her. But, my memories of her make it seem like yesterday. Her humor & laughter were contagious. And she had a voice made for angels. She's gone on now to share her angelic voice in Heaven's Choir. Rest well, beautiful! Heartfelt condolences to everyone who was blessed to know and love her ❤️

“ I am so sorry to learn of Al's passing. I am so grateful to have known Al as one of my Mama's best friends (Maxine Joyce Burton.) I had the honor of hearing the beautiful voice of Al's song and play the piano in her living room when we would visit. I loved her joy and her laughter. She was a beautiful woman inside and out and I know she is at peace and smiling down on us. God bless the family 🙏💛
