“ MICHAEL AND ARDITH A. PRICE report...

Alvin Hill Sr. is a terrific God fearing man, who at Eastern Michigan University was our 1972-1974 roommate at Kingsley Apartment when we were college students. There were four of us, Kynard Spencer a visual artist, Alvin the always capable income tax accountant, second generation construction contracting entrepreneur Dennis Reed, and yours truly writing Michael Price a student of radio, television and film.

As the student activity grew into graduation Alvin and Kynard consistently guided our wholesome growth in church and into membership of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, the Delta Nu Chapter.

We all found a wives in our 30's and raised family. Al married Victoria Wilkerson on Sept 17, 1983 and they raised three boys-into-gentlemen within the church. Rev. Victoria and trustee Alvin Sr. in 2007 founded the New Beginnings Ministry, which has consistently hosted church services inside their home including a weekly Bible Study and Prayer Group for the Godly betterment of the New Kensington, PA area community.

Fifty years later we remain true to our faith as Christians within our fraternal friendship. We will miss Al's leadership skills, his smile, easy laugh and his sincere dedication to God Almighty and his family.

May our Triune God continue to bless Victoria and her wonderful grand Hill family in Jesus's magnificent name.

Faithfully, Michael "Tiger" and Ardith Arnelle'- Price

“ Sending love, prayers and condolences to the entire Hill & Wilkinson families. Back in the day I lived in the same apartment complex as Al, in the bldg across from his. When I came home, if it was dark out, he told me to blow the horn and he'd look out and watch me go into my bldg. He'd wait for me to turn the light on inside my apartment and if everything was ok, I'd wave and he'd wave back. What a nice man!

My Kappa Brother Alvin Hill introduced me to Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. As a freshman in Best Hall. He loved the fraternity and all of the Delta Nu Brothers. He was one of the reasons I pledged Kappa. We kept in touch with each other and once played Golf when he came home to Flint. Rest on The Golden Shore My Brother Alvin Hill. Gone from here on earth but never forgotten. 🙏🙏🙏
