Our beloved Amber Faith Wicker was born in Flint, Michigan to the union of Curtis Jerome Wicker Sr. and Deborah Dorcas Toles on September 11, 1987. Amber has one sister Natwana and two brothers, Curtis Jr. and Jerome.

When Amber was a baby, she and her mom moved to Oklahoma to live with her grandparents. While there her grandfather, Rev. Raymond Toles baptized her at his church Goodwill Church of God in Christ. Amber's grandmother affectionately called Mother Toles was instrumental and supportive in Amber's education in the Oklahoma school system until she was 16 years old. In 2003, Amber returned to Flint, Michigan to live with her father, Curtis Wicker Sr. and attended Northern High School. Amber had Rheumatoid Arthritis and had to leave school early. She worked hard and diligently with this illness and finally completed her GED at Mott Educational Center in 2005. Amber was unable to work because of the severity of the arthritis. She never gave up or quit. Amber continued to pursue her education in a degree program online. Amber loved helping family members and friends and was known as a caregiver to many.

She was known by her sister, Natwana, as being full of life and fun to be around. Amber always checked on you, calling everyone on a day-to-day basis. She was a very giving person.

Her cousin Bianca remembers being known as her “favorite cousin”. Being a fun, loving person, she always liked to make you laugh and loved being around her family.

God blessed Amber on January 23, 2020, with an adorable baby boy named Rise. Rise was the joy of her life.

“ My daughter-niece-caretaker-friend, Amber Faith Wicker in your humble beginnings denial was present, but we knew you were destined for a purpose is why your Grandmother Maty Toles came to Flint when you was a baby and took you back to Muskogee Oklahoma. Flint was your birth place but you were “an Okie from Muskogee”. Although at a tender age of 2 while living in our humble apartment in San Diego Ca and attending an Nursery Academy said you were only 2-years old but was answering 6-8 year old questions with correct answers. We all have some imperfections but your love and caring for many unconditionally makes you a gem still maturing. But God allowed death to come and now you’re back with him. I thank God for giving Amber to us for a little while but she always be in our heart and we will continue to hold her son Rise into God for his continued life without his Mother. Humble submitted: Aunt Mary Toles, maternal auntie. Muskogee Ok
