“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ My heart and prayers go out to all my family and the friends of our dear wonderful Amyre. I thank God that He allowed us the time to make such an acquaintance with a person that has shown us so much love and compassion. Her smile alone would brighten the days of others, and her words would lift up those that are down. She had such a beautiful spirit; oftentimes placing the concerns of others with high regard. Knowing this, that Jesus Christ our Lord called her home to be with Him. Although we are saddened, my family will stand strong and thrive in our adversities during our time of distress. I'm reminded of the scripture found in 2nd Timothy 2:19, which states: "Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, the Lord knoweth them that are his." And our beloved Amyre belongs to the Lord and is with Him and she is with us in spirit and in our hearts. Amyre, we shall see you in the Kingdom to come; where there is no more goodbye or sorrow, where joy and peace is everlasting! With love, your cousin, Joe.

“ It is only natural that we yearn to see our dead loved ones again, after all we want to live and enjoy life with the ones we love. The Bible teaches us that most people who die will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will...come out." (John 5:28,29) In harmony with Jehovah's will we will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future also includes perfect health and everlasting life. The bible also teaches that "The righteous will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Psalm 37:29 There are many more scriptures which tell us about the resurrection and Jehovahs kingdom, some are Job 14:14, Luke 7:11-17, and Acts 24:15. We hope that these promises from Jehovah and Jesus Christ help ease your thoughts during you time of sorrow. Agape love, Chad and Lisa Halstead
