“ My loving memory of my cousin Andre Red wine; you always greeted me with a hug, with love and kind words. Although we all have to leave this world one day, it was still a shock to us all that you were gone. You will forever be remembered, recall and reflected upon. I loved you in life and will continue to love you know that you're gone. You have your wings Andre and you're free of all of life's trials and tribulations. Fly young Man soar as high as you can. I'll miss you forever, but I know you are in God's hands. Much much love to you cousin...mmmwah.
