“Uncle Andrew” will always be remembered for his quiet, kind and generous “soul”. That was the essence and fulfillment of his being here with us. He was a man of humble character, model example of a good Husband, Father, “Uncle” and Friend....and we learned life lessons from him. We love you more Aunt Willie, Sharon and Ricky...Adrian and Whitney... and we petition God’s loving care, comfort and protection for you in days to come. Just as the sun is destined to shine....you will find purpose in all the “memories” he has left with us.....

Aunt Willie, Ricky, and Sharon:

I will forever remember my wonderful

“Uncle Doc” (although no one could say his name like Aunt Willie!) One of the kindest, quiet, fun loving uncle to ever live. He loved unconditionally and you knew it. Such a humble and God fearing man! He truly exemplified what a father is and what a father should be. He lead by example and Ricky and Sharon, you should be so grateful that God gave you such a man in your life. You got the very best. Whitney and Adrian you know he loved you so much. Please cherish the wonderful memories and laugh like he would of the old days gone by. I will miss his true fish stories and the big ones that got away! Take care of Aunt Willie! Love you all!!
