“ My family and I had the distinct pleasure of living next door to Mr. Harris, his wife and five (5) children for many years. We are, individually and collectively in deep grief at learning of the passing of Mr. Harris who was a stalwart in our community.

We pray for peace and solace for his wife, children and other members of the Harris family and pray God forgive any sin committed in this world and allow his soul to rest in perpetual peace and splendor until the day of judgment and that he be admitted to paradise by God's grace and mercy. Amen
