“ Angel:
You truly lived up to your name. I am so heartbroken over your early departure but I know that you had alot of faith and that you are with the Lord. You were always so kind and willing to help everyone in our class. The world lost a beautiful young lady. I love you Angel.

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

“ Psalms 121:1-2
I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. We should always look unto the Lord for strength in trying times. So family keep your heads up and we will continue to keep you in our prayers. With that being said, Angel you are truely loved and will be missed.

“ Dear Tiffany and Rose,
I am so sorry for your loss. I want you to know that if you need to talk I will be there to listen. I lost my sister in 2003. I don't know if you remember her or not. Not a day goes by that I don't think of her, but it is all of the wonderful memories that get me through the difficult times. Hold on to the good times with your sister. They will be your light in times of darkness. I am praying for you and your family.
With heartfelt sympathy,
Ms. J

“ I was shocked when I heard the news of Angel's passing via facebook. I haven't seen her since we graduated. Me and her go back 4th grade in Mr. Welch and Mr. Wagner's classes at Anderson all the way to Northern. I wish I could we could have reunited at the class reunion this summer, but God had other plans; his will be done.

I'll miss Angel always; the quiet girl who's name was always called right before mine on the class attendance (lol), who was a great role model and protective of her sisters and close friends.

“ Praising God for the life of Angel. She had a very special spirit and smile when I would deliver the mail and was always trying to find work to do! We pain for her separation from us but God is rejoicing for her celebration in heaven! Trust God for all of your needs during these trying times! "Gone too soon!" Praying for your strength in the Lord! Love, the mail lady, Barbara!
