I am deeply saddened to have very recently and unexpectedly learned of Neicy's transition she was such a very beautiful person one thing I truly loved about Neicy and that was that she loved people and she not only loved people, but she most loved her family and our entire family and I loved how she was about bringing people together. I hate that I unfortunately can't be there at her homegoing in person to be of support to the rest of my family . I certainly send my condolences and my prayers are certainly our entire family and I love you all ❤️
