“Gone To Soon”....Angelia was a very, sweet, kind, loving and magnetic genuine person that always greeted you with a warm smile and always had generous things to say. I will have nothing but fond memories of her. It was a great pleasure to work with her for many years at The Flint Journal. She was a very classy and well dressed lady who had an infectious smile. We will all miss her very much! We loved her too; but God loved her most...My prayers go out deeply to all of her children that she loved dearly and to her family and friends. May God continue to give you all the strength needed during this difficult time..... "Ms. Yolanda Palmer" (Flint Journal friend and co-worker)
