Angelo accepted Christ at an early age and attended Mt. Sinai as a youth. He attended Flint Schools and eventually earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business from Baker College. Angelo held several occupations, including manufacturing work and construction. In recent years, Angelo made the brave move to take his talents and work ethic to Fort Worth, Texas and continue his work on remodeling home. To know Angelo is to love him. He was more than meets the eye, but don't let the green eyes fool you. He never met a stranger with those warm eyes. He loved playing cards, dominoes, fishing, music, traveling and boating. Behind those eyes was a gentle soul that lived his life to the fullest. From triumphant moments, like the birth of his children to difficult moments of overcoming the many obstacles he faced as a child throughout adulthood. Angelo lived a life without regret. This energetic soul left the world a better place because he was outspoken, had an enormous heart, wonderful sense of humor, was loyal, strong willed and dedicated to loving his entire family. Angelo was called to eternal rest on June 23, 2023. Angelo leaves to cherish his memory: children, Angelica (Tori) Hall, Ronald "Lil Angelo" Cloyd and Ashanti, Bailey; grandchildren, Azariah Cobb, Marissa Livingston, Sernity Seguin; father, Eddie (Vergie) Dailey; sisters, Monica Blair, Jacqueline Blair, Beverly Blair, Tujuana Jenkins, Yalonda Kindle, Sindy (Wayne) Lee; and many nieces and nephews and a host of beloved relatives and friends.
