Mrs. Anita Michelle Mayweather was born June 6, 1962 in Flint Michigan, the daughter of John Henry Goldsmith and Bonnie Ruth Mayweather. Michelle or "Chelly Poo" as she was fondly referred to by her family and friends was a lifelong resident of Flint and attended the Flint Public Schools. She became a member of Kings Highway Ministries in Lansing, MI where she attended until she became too ill to go anymore. Anita enjoyed listening to the old blues tunes, and she loved playing bingo, playing cards, and talking trash when she was winning. She loved people and lit up the room with her humor and smile. Michelle loved her family especially her grandchildren. She loved to cook and was best known for her flavorful and juicy fried chicken wings.
