“Sis. Shoemo will always be remember for her warm smile and the love that she showed to us. She had a way correcting me with her "loving look."

I am ever so thankful that she was honored on last year at 2nd Chance Church because she was truly deserving of the honor. To the family: Stay strong, continue to demonstrate that unity that I have always admired in you. I thank our Lord for the 82 years that we were blessed to have your mother in our lives! May it comfort you to know that your mother is now "Resting with Jesus."
