Anna loved traveling, playing cards, cooking, music and being with her spiritual family. Her love for Jehovah moved her to dedicating her life to him on November 7, 1993, as one of Jehovah's Witness, attending the Bellaire Woods Congregation. Anna's love and zeal for the ministry, motivated her to become a regular pioneer in 1994, until her death. She loved and cherished her best friend and daughter, Tonya Fields. They enjoyed many good times together, including the ministry. Anna will be missed very much. I thank Jehovah for giving me a mother who taught me about our grand creator, Jehovah, and showing me how to take care of myself and to show love to others. We all will miss her bubbly smile, jokes, motherly love, and her energetic vibes.
