“ To my Dear Loving Cousin. Whom I already miss. Although we live in different cities we always kept in touch. Growing up I spent some summers with her & her family Creating wonderful unforgettable memories. She displayed a kind, sweet, personality . With a infectious laugh that no one could forget. Heaven has received another Angel. Gone but never forgotten. Love always in my Heart ❤️ Love Your Cousin. Joan Stevenson

My Dear sweet cousin. Although there was a distance in miles, the conversations we had made the distance not a concern. I will truly miss the distinct "Annetta laughter" with the uplifting conversations. Although your plate was full, you endured and pursued all with grace and dignity. "Job well done" cousin! Although I will definitely miss you, I have the happy memories from the baby shower you had for "Tia" with other cheerish and happy moments throughout the years...Love you, as always ending with every conversation, Cousin Carlotta!

“ Annetta is love. She lived a life of love, high spirits, trust, patience, comfort, compassion and warmth with open arms, heart and doors to family, friends even strangers. Always thinking and feeling positive willing to help in any situation. Her laugh, a laughter so genuine if heard, you'd know that's Annetta laughing. In the loud and quiet moments we shared I'm grateful for her unconditional love, trust and support. I love her then, I love her now, my Godmother Annetta Cooper I'll love her always and forever. ”

“ Thank you for welcoming us into KSMBC with love and joy. We appreciate you for including us in your tent at the Church Picnic year after year. Thank you for connecting us to Vacation Bible School. Thank you for checking on mom during and after her surgery. You didn't have to do it, but you did, and we are forever thankful. Take your rest. Job well done.
