“ My heart was sad to hear about the lost of my dear sister, she was mother and sister to so many in louisiana. She was know for making us laugh even in times of sorrow just knowing she put a smile on our face. And to her sons I want forget when she made me get up and tell you all what I was doing while she was driving us to Michigan . I know that your hearts is heavy right know but your mom would tell you don't worry about me because I will be waiting for you on the other side. Her family was so dear to her I know you will miss her because I miss her already. But I say to you let not your hearts be trouble ye believe in God believe also in me in my Fathers house are many mansions. There is a home for us on the other side to her family get your house in order so that we will see her again one day.
