“ "If God doesn't do anything else for me, he's done enough" that was something that she has said to me several times. During her trial in her health I don't recall her complaining but what I do remember was her rejoicing, rejoicing that she knew God for herself which brings me to the saying ?know God know peace?. My mom is now at peace and free from all her earthly pain and suffering. While I will miss her in the physical I will always carry with me her memory and her spirit and since I know she knew God, I know I will see her again.
2 Cor: 5,8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
Love you Annice!!!!

“ Bert and the entire Saffold family, I am so sorry for your lost. Bert your mom was a very special lady who loved her baby boy! Please focus on all of the wonderful times you shared with your mom, continue to lean on the Lord, and remember Psalms 1.

You and your family are in my prayers,

Heather
