“ *Natalie Julie and De Shawn: you have my deepest sympathy during this difficult time I know first hand what it is like when you mom passes away. I also know a God that heals all wounds and this too shall pass when you trust in the Lord.
Keep God first and remember the good times they will get you through the bad times.
Love you all,

“ *To my Natalie, Julie, DeShawn and the entire family of our dear Sis. Aytes, Your precious mother shared you with me as you grew up to be the fine adults you became, serving her God that became your God. Now is the time for us to be there with and for each of you as you say to your mother with the assurance, 'We will see you again.' Covering you with much prayer. May the Lord's loving promises to comfort you give you strength as you walk through this difficult time.

“ To the Aytes family please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At times like this it is good to know that we can turn to our heavenly father Jehovah God (Psalms 83:18) for comfort. The bible says he is the "God of comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation". (2 Corinthians 1:3&4) The bible also speaks of a time in the near future when death will be a thing of the past at Isaiah 25:8, "he will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". Another encouraging scripture is found at John 5:28 where Jesus says, "do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". We can always turn to God's word for encouragement to get through difficult times like these. I sincerely hope these words will help you to make it through the days to come. Selina Long Merriwether

“ Dear Aytes Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)

“You will lose someone you can't live without, and your heart will be badly broken, and the bad news is that you never completely get over the loss of your beloved. But this is also the good news. They live forever in your broken heart that doesn't seal back up. And you come through. It's like having a broken leg that never heals perfectly—that still hurts when the weather gets cold, but you learn to dance with the limp.”

~Anne Lamott~ So sorry for your loss!!!
