She was a very loving and caring person and would speak to everyone she knew and didn't know. Antoinette truly loved her family and wanted to spend as much time as she could with them. When someone visited her it made her day. She was a giving person even though she didn't have much, the things she gave were always nice things, Antoinette wasn't cheap at all. She loved shopping for clothes, shoes, purses, makeup ect. Antoinette would light up like a child in a candy store when she shopped. She had a child like personality that's what made her so unique. Antoinette loved to look pretty and was a very clean person. She hated the fact that she had to depend on other to take care of her, that wasn't part of Antoinette personality. She struggled with that part, because she always done for herself. Antoinette loved reading her Bible, listening to spiritual cds and going to church when she could. Antoinette was a genuine person.
