“ To the family of Antionette Patrick, Antionette had a very quiet and gentle spirit. I will always remember her smiling, even through her pain she smiled. Her presence will be missed by me at New Jerusalem, and I will certainly miss her gentle presence. God is your comfort in this storm, trouble don't last always. And God hears you tears. Jesus said in his word "My peace I leave you"

“ To the Patrick family. Your family has my deepest sympathy. Let not your hearts be troubled, for your sister has gone to a better place. She's gone to be with her mother. Family hold on to God's unchanging hand. He has'nt brought you this far this to fail you. Put your trust and faith in him. Just know that Net's pain and suffering is over and she's with our father in heaven now. Keep your heads up and never lose faith. May God and bless and keep you all in his care. Sincerely Sandra Brown Copeland and family.
