“ Cousin Cheryl and family, I know times like this will make the strongest person question their faith, but fear not because GOD will not put more on your shoulders than you can handle. We will get through this as a family and know that anything you need, whether it be a conversation or someone to lean on, I will always be here and most importantly, GOD will always be there for you. We LOVE you and Lil' Tony will not be forgotten!

“ I imagine there is no pain more far-reaching and deeper than losing a child. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family at this most difficult time. Love you all...

“ To the family of Antonio Bell Jr, I send my deepest sympathy. The bible call these last days "critical times hard to deal with". (2 Timothy 3:1) And our young men seem to be having the hardest times. Please understand that Jehovah God see it and will soon act. First, He will have his son, Jesus remove the wickedness, (Psalms 37:9-11) and restore life to our dear loved ones sleeping in death. (John 5:28,29) Then Antonio will be able to finish the life he had just began.

“ MOVE AWAY to another state.... This is the reason I left Chicago! WE as parents must take action.. Sure, you can't change the people around you, BUT YOU CAN change the people that you are around. Take action now, start planning now, and MOVE away from that madness as soon as possible. It is easy to move away, it is HARD to bury a child- my heart is broken for you. Atlanta, GA
