Antonio "Pig" Dominic Storey was one of a kind, and anyone who interacted with him was greeted with his big bright smile. Though his life was short, Antonio impacted everyone he encountered, and his presence will be missed. Although he was small, he was a mighty force of light. Antonio lived life fearlessly and loved unconditionally. Antonio never met a stranger, and he would find a way to make you smile or laugh. Antonio was an angel that changed lives through his infectious and big personality. We find comfort in knowing that he will always be the light above us, as well as within us.

Antonio "Pig" Dominic Storey was born November 26, 2012, in Flint, Michigan. Antonio was the son of Nicole Lynn Storey and Robert Moultrie Sr. He loved his family, and sibling; especially his cousins, Mario Slik, Jatavion Adkisson, Aurbrey and Kairo Waters, god-father Dominic Manuel, and great-grandmother, Billie Wright. He also loved his dog "Bruno," basketball, video games, and playing outside with his family and friends. Antonio was a student at Brownell Elementary (Flint, MI).

Antonio leaves to cherish his memory; his mother Nicole Lynn Storey, father Robert (LaKeisha) Moultrie Sr., and step-dad, Darrice Martin; nine siblings, Kimora Murphy, De'Arra Martin, Darrice "Rocky Man" Martin III, all of Flint, MI, Robert Moultrie Jr., Rosemary Davis, Nia Epps, Angel Moultrie, Jasmine Davis all of Detroit, MI., and LaQuisha Patrick of Flint, MI; grandparents, Tasheen (James) Shotwell, John Moultrie Sr., Henry Biggs Sr.; great-grandmother, Billie Wright (Flint, MI), Stephanie (Kenneth) Steward of Georgia; great-great grandmother, Maxine Storey of Flint, MI; god-father, Dominic Manuel; god-mother, Bobby Griffin; god-sister; Tequlia Robinson; aunts, Nakeia Storey, Breyah Storey, Nyar Robertson, Deesha Mayfield, and Satonia Burnett. “ Antonio was a child that always had a smile on his face. When other children were having a bad day he would hug them and say it’s going to be alright okay. He was our Sunshine kid that smile would just lite up our classroom. I had him for a little while in kindergarten. This is a part of Antonio’s story. Rest up sunshine kid. Mrs. Jefferson-Johnson.
