Antonio enjoyed working, singing, wearing new athletic shoes, spending time with his family and friends. He was a proud man/father. If you were mad at him, he would never take it personal. His heart only allowed forgiveness. That's how much he loved people.

Antonio was very kind and was always smiling. Although he wouldn't give you the shirt of his back, he would leave you with a message: "when something bad happens you have three choices, you can either let it define you, let it destroy you or you can let it strengthen you." Then he would let you know that he picked the last one.

“ To the Willis Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
