Mother Arlene Lovett was a kindhearted, classy, creative and loving woman of God. She was born on December 31, 1931 in Willard, Ohio to the late Sam and Mattie McKinney. She was married to Perry Lovett for over 40 years. At an early age, she discovered her love of caring for others while working with her mother at the local hospital. Mother Lovett pursued this passion working at Hurley Medical Center in Flint, MI and attending Mott Community College simultaneously. She receiving her Associates degree in Nursing in 1978 from Mott and retired in 1987 from Hurley as a Licensed Registered Nurse.

Mother Lovett was a faithful member at New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church, having served for many years as the President of the Mother's Board and also served on the Tape Ministry. She loved to care for her garden of various flowers and plants, keeping her yard immaculate. In her early years she helped run a family owned restaurant in Saginaw, MI. She also loved to golf and play tennis along with sewing and making beautiful hats. Mother Lovett was an avid bargain shopper and loved to dress in glitz and glam. She was a life-long learner and loved studying and reading the bible along with other books. In her later years, she loved caring for her cat Snoop and loved to eat her favorite snacks.
