“ To the family of the beloved Arneather Henderson:

During times like these there never seems to be any words of comfort that could truly replace what is felt in your heart during your time of bereavement.

God in His love, grace, and mercy granted you the gift of time to help you while you place your trust in Him to comfort and strengthen you while you prepare to continue on your life's journey.

The Bible indicates that there is a time for the various seasons of our lives. A time to laugh, and a time to cry, a time of joy and a time of sadness. A time to live and a time to die.

I know that Arneather will be missed by all. God also knew this and that's why He granted you another gift of life and that is the gift to cherish all those unforgettable memories that are recorded on the tablets of your hearts.

May the Lord continue to comfort you and you continue to be comforted in His love.
