“ I remember Bro. Dickerson as my high school teacher. I also remember him as the articulate, educated saint of God, as I grew up at Faith Temple COGIC. Recently, I was asked to speak at an event, where I wore my graduation robe and regalia. I could not help but to think of him and the and the educational influence he had on me as a child growing up. Bro. Dickerson may be gone, but he will live on in my memory.

To Sis. Dickerson and your children, Loni, Chuky, Lynn, Wendy and Lelee, (that's how I remember them), may God keep you, strengthen you and bless you in this great time of sorrow. May He bring peace and happiness in a brighter tomorrow.

“ I was so very sorry to hear of your loss. No doubt, you are bible readers and are familiar with the scripture that says there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Also Isaiah 33:24 where it says that there will be a time when "no resident will say I am sick". Please read these scriptures at your convenience. I hope you will find comfort during this difficult time.

“ Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.
Say not in grief "he is no more," but live in thankfulness that he was. Uncle Arthur will be truly missed with his tender smile and slow to take offense attitude. A man of great love and devotion. To my family, I love you all and he will be truly missed, but safe in the arms of our Lord. Peace be unto you all at this time of a loss.

“ To my beloved family: I remember Uncle Arthur as a profound intellectual Biblical Scholar. He was oh so articulate and truly expressed his great love for God and the written word. He always testified that "God saved him from the world and allowed him to experience the glamour of the church." Uncle Arthur is dancing around the throne of God and will return in the resurrection. It is so and so shall it be.
