“ Aunt Artie, I wanted to send red roses but I could only choose just one so I chose the Word of God. The Bible is the one thing my Aunt and I shared, the love of God in and throughout our lives. She and my Uncle Rev. H. B. Dixson helped to raise and form me in the Word. I thank God for giving me the two of them as such great examples of faith and how to live for Christ as the head of my life. Every child needs someone they can look up to while growing up and I looked up to them because of their profound steadfast faith in God which is the legacy they leave to me. I will always remember our times of testimonies we shared together and how we could sit on the phone and talk most assuredly about the love of God we shared because of how GOOD GOD IS! I will miss those talks and all the laughter Auntie because you're no longer with me yet your spirit will always live within my heart and I can be at Peace KNOWING that you and Uncle Hie are home along with so many other family members gone on before us and are basking in the unfathomed LOVE OF GOD and I am so happy for you. I know we will meet again so sleep on my loving angel. Thank you for all that you have taught me, I love you 💕💕🥰 Your niece, Deborah
