“ Tish was such a nice person, I enjoyed our encounters and conversations although not many. She had a beautiful spirit and smile, and was straightforward. She will be missed. May you have peace and find comfort in knowing that she is with God. My deepest condolences to the entire family, be blessed.

“ *Laura, Ava and family,
Praying that the peace of God guards your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus as you go through this difficult time and the time ahead.
Sis Tish was a blessing to our family in word and in deed. Her Sunday packages for the boys always seemed to come right on time. She made sure they had what they needed for sure, and it was greatly appreciated.
It was Henderson's pleasure to be her after church escort and my pleasure to just wait my turn until he was had her safely in the car :)
As you all prepare to do what you have to do, know that there are those praying for you in the background.
Love you forever, Henderson, Ketesa, Jayden and Jorden Allen

“ My deepest sympathies to Artishsa family, she was a beautiful person in and out. I met her years ago when we both were in our 20's raising our children. We used to live near one another, until I moved. Then we reconnected again because we belonged to the same church family. I know you will be truly missed by so many people. Much Love ❤️
