“ My deepest condolences go out to the Clemons family. Words just cannot express the pain, heartache, and grief that goes along with the loss of your dear precious baby girl especially when they are so young. May your memories and prayers that go out for you help calm your heart while you reflect on Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live, my corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully you residents in the dust!...And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life."

“ She was so kind. She always offered to help other students. Her beautiful smile and dimples made others smile back! She worked so hard and was always an example of endurance and patience. Loved her dearly! Blessed to know her entire family and to have had two other siblings in class. Prayers for the family, as she makes her heavenly journey.
