Mother August Burroughs-Green went from labor to victory on Monday, August 2, 2021 at McLaren-Flint.

Augusta Pendleton was born June 20, 1930 in Whatley, Alabama, the third of seven children to Clarence and Arretta (Bass) Pendleton.

On August 11, 1946, Mother Green was united in marriage to Mac Burroughs. To this union seven children were born. After being married 28 years and 17 years a widow, it was divinely ordained by God that she meet and marry Deacon Roy Charles Green. This union exponentially increased the family dynamic.

Mother Green was saved under the leadership of Pastor James Markham at St. James COGIC (Selby Street) in 1961 and baptized in the Holy Ghost at Sunrise Service-Easter Sunday morning of the same year.

Mother Green was a willing worker, active in Intercessory Prayer, visiting the sick/shut-in, Kitchen Committee, Usher Board, Choir, YWCC, Home & Foreign Mission, Prayer and Bible Band and Mothers Board.

Whatever her hands found to do, she did lovingly. Mother Green was industrious and very resourceful. A maker of quilts, clothing and an excellent cook.
