Baby Boy Jaylen Dayvaughn Horace was born January 29, 2009 in Flint, Michigan, the son of Misty Ampy and Edward Horace, Jr. Jaylen was a beautiful bright eyed, red haired baby boy who had a beautiful smile. He adored his big sister, I`yanna. Jaylen had a very special bond and love for his mother and father whom he was attached to. He didn't want much but just the love that he was due on a daily basis. Jaylen wasn't on this earth long, but he was definitely wanted and appreciated very much by his parents and family. He leaves to cherish his precious memories: parents, Misty Ampy and Edward Horace, Jr.; sister, I`yanna Horace; brother, Lavarious Horace; grandparents, Elizabeth Ampy, all of Flint, Evalene and Edward Charles Horace, Sr., both of Louisiana; 3 aunts, Yulanda Ampy, Latoya Ampy, both of Flint and LaShonda Horace of Louisiana, 3 uncles, Richie Ampy of Ohio, Jeffery Ampy of Flint and Keith Horace of Lapeer, MI; cousins, Andrea, Keith, Jazmine Ampy, Andrew Newman, Delano, D`Angelo Philpots, all of Flint, Kenisha, Alexis and Isaac

Pearson and Javius Horace, all of Louisiana; a host of other relatives and special family including, aunts, Latosha Price and Barbara Ann West; special uncles, George West III and Curtis West; cousins, Yolanda and Marqwevell Cummings, Marquall Deloach, George West IV, Lakesha Knapp and special friend, Faneisha Smith. Baby Boy Jaylen D. Horace was preceded in death by his grandfather, John Ampy, Jr.; great-grandparents, Clara Ampy, Annie Bell Ampy and George West II; aunts, Constance Newman and Bobbie Ampy; uncle, Christopher Allen; and cousins, LaMario Horace, Baby Quanizja Ampy and Gerald Ampy. The family would like to express special thanks to aunt and uncle, Dorothy & Jesse Belk for all their love and support.
