

Baby Ja'Miyah Dixon

February 7, 2009

DIXON, Baby Girl Ja'Miyah Laneece - Newborn, passed away Saturday, February 7, 2009 at Covenant Hospital. Private Funeral Service has already taken place. A true angel sent from heaven to change lives in two weeks. Baby Girl Ja'Miyah Laneece Dixon was born Saturday, January 24, 2009 in Saginaw, Michigan, the precious baby girl of Tiffiney Denae Jackson and Jamaal Levail Dixon. She went to heaven on Saturday, February 7, 2009. Ja'Miyah was delivered by emergency C-Section due to lack of movement. After numerous test her birth doctors informed her parents that she had encephalitis which is an infection of the brain therefore she would never be able to function like a normal baby. She would never cry, or even open her eyes. After eight days on a breathing machine her parents decided to take her off. Doctors thought she would only survive for a few hours, but she fooled them and lasted for another six days. You could tell from her ultrasound pictures that she was beautiful. When she was born you were finally able to see one of the prettiest babies ever. Just looking at her brought a smile to your face. In her short time here she has inspired, motivated, and changed people's lives. She was a strong baby girl, she fought until the end. Ja'Miyah was truly an angel sent from heaven to teach valuable lessons. Ja'Miyah will be forever loved and never forgotten by her parents, Tiffiney Denae Jackson and Jamaal Levail Dixon; sisters, Savayah and Tyjayanna Dixon; brother, Savon Jones; grandparents, Melanie Jackson, Ivery Jackson, Deborah and John Dixon; great-grandparents, Minnie Dixon, Joseph Dixon, Margaret “Peggy” Livingston and Harold Livingston and Ernest Reed; aunts, Shanalyce and Mary Jackson, Felicia and April Dixon; uncle, DeJuan Jackson; she will also be remembered by other numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and family friends. Ja’Miyah was preceded in death by her great-grandmother, Jessie Reed.
