“ *Dearest Kemp Family,
I am so saddened by the loss of your baby girl. Please know the comfort that Isaiah 25:8 offers... "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces."...that is a sure promise. i hope that you will find the true comfort that you need at this time.*

“ Jazz & Markeda were are sadden to hear about your baby girl. She is gone so soon. God in his infinite wisdom always know what's best. He took her home to be with him so she would not have to go through the struggles here on Earth. She will only experience joy, peace, love and happiness in the presents of Jesus. We will keep you in our prayers. You have our deepest sympathy

“ ? I am grateful that I got to spend the time with you that we had together. Others did not even have that. You will always be missed and loved dearly. You made life for me worth living a little more. Even though I know you are in a better place, it still saddens me but just know you will not EVER be replaced. My second born child. The love of my life. The fight that I struggle. For you, I'll do it day and night. Our days are never promised. I found this out the hard way. But for sure we will meet again, another time, another way. Sleep well Princess.?”

“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Often during difficult times people turn to the scriptures. Two that come to mind are Acts 24:15 and Revelations 21:3,4. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.
