“ Linda and Family:

You and your family have my deepest sympathy for the passing of Little Baby Keymarion.

I hope this poem bring you all some comfort.

*When God Calls Our Children
By Unknown Author*

*When God calls our children
to dwell with Him above.
We mortals sometime question
the wisdom of His love.
For no heartache compares with,
the death of one small child.
Who does so much to make our world,
seem so wonderful and mild.
Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to his fold.
So He picks a rosebud
before it can grow old.
God knows how much we need them,
and so He takes but a few.
To make the land of heaven
more beautiful to view.
Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try.
The saddest word mankind knows will always be Good-bye.
So when a little child departs,
we who are left behind.
Must realize God loves children.
Angels Are Hard to Find!*

Our Strength Comes from God!

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.
