“ I got married four years ago and asked all my aunts to participate in my wedding in place of my mom who was deceased. I believe my mother was smiling down on my wedding day when she saw Aunt Barbara, Aunt Lois and Aunt Priscilla being escorted to their seats on my joyous wedding day. My only regret is that I didn't spend more time with her.

“ I have three fond memories that I remember the most. Aunt Barbara worked at Big Boys in Detroit after High School and would frequently bring me coloring books from Big Boys when I was a little girl. I loved getting the colorful books from my aunty. It's the small things that mean so much. When my mom Jewell died, Aunt Barbara make sure she attended my Mother's funeral. Aunt Barbara had to arrange for her dialysis treatment to attend the funeral in Nashville Tenn. She told me, I would never miss my sister's funeral (I was so grateful for that).
